

Dining in Siem Reap

Siem Reap is a bit unusual in that many places do not have street addresses. Where possible we have added a link to the restaurant's website which may help you to locate the venue.

CAFES AND COFFEE BARS:

The Blue Pumpkin
Common Grounds
The Little Red Fox
Sister Srey

ICE CREAM:

The Blue Pumpkin
Gelato Lab
Glass House (Park Hyatt)

Olive cuisine de Saison

CUISINE WAT DAMNAK

Serving Khmer cuisine with a modern interpretation by French chef Joannes Riviere. Two degustation menus change weekly and are based on seasonably available produce and fish. The restaurant is set in a traditional Khmer wooden house with both indoor and outdoor dining options.

Closed Sundays & Mondays

Off Wat Bo Road

+855 (0) 77 347 762

www.cuisinewatdamnak.com

SUGAR PALM

Authentic Khmer cooking with a modern twist. Housed in a wooden Khmer style house with the dining area on the upper floor overlooking the gardens. Sugar Palm prides itself on the subtle flavors achieved with local herbs and spices. Dishes are best enjoyed when shared!

Closed Sundays

Taphul Road

+855 (0) 63 63 62 060

www.thesugarpalm.com

CHARCOAL

Featuring both Khmer and western dishes, all produce is sourced locally. The signature dish, New Zealand entrecote is served with a "secret sauce" and Khmer dishes are made with traditional ingredients. A fine selection of wines and cocktails are served. Indoor and garden seating are available.

Open Daily

Wat Bo Road

+855 (0) 63 966 550

www.charcoalcafe.com

OLIVE

Fine French cuisine in downtown Siem Reap set in an old colonial building.

With a sophisticated and diverse menu of predominately French choices, the restaurant has also gained a reputation for its excellent service. Both indoor and outdoor seating options are available.

Open Daily

Near old market

+855 (0) 63 769 899

VIROTH'S

Viroth's serves traditional Khmer food in a contemporary setting. Most tables are in the garden but a private dining room is also available. All dishes are prepared from locally sourced seasonably available products.

Open daily

99 Wat Bo Road

+ 855 (0) 12 826 346

www.viroth-restaurant.com

Dining in Siem Reap

AFTER-DINNER DRINKS:

While Pub Street is awash with drinking establishments, the following places provide a bit more atmosphere (and quiet!)

Miss Wong (pictured below)
Asana Old Wooden House
Elephant Bar (Raffles)
FCC Angkor

Miss Wong Cocktails

IL FORNO

Diverse Italian menu featuring hand cut pastas and pizzas and homemade desserts. The cosy venue is a warren of rooms in one of the lanes off of Pub Street and has a traditional Neopolitan wood-fired oven.

Open Daily

Lane north of Pub St. +855 (0) 78 208 174 www.ilforno.restaurant/siem-reap

CAFE INDOCHINE

One of the last traditional Khmer wooden villas remaining in the centre of Siem Reap is home to Cafe Indochine, creating a romantic setting for this classic Khmer restaurant with some additional international turns.

Open Daily

44 Sivatha Street +855 (0) 92 630 958 www.cafe-indochine.com

CHANREY TREE

Located along the river road, Chanrey Tree offers Khmer traditional cuisine in a lush and contemporary setting. Specialties include seafood with Kampot pepper, a native plant and braised frog legs.

Open Daily

Along Siem Reap river side + 855 (0) 63 767 997 www.chanreytree.com

MARUM

Marum provides creative local cuisine with an emphasis on tapas (small dishes) with several vegetarian options on hand but full entrees are also available. Part of the Friends International alliance, Marum is a social enterprise providing food service training skills to disadvantaged young Cambodians.

Open Daily

Near Wat Polanka +855 (0) 17 363 284 www.marum-restaurant.org

DAKSHIN'S

Widely considered to be the best Indian restaurant in town, Dakshin's extensive and well priced menu offers dishes from throughout India. With its imported tandoori oven and glassed in kitchen, this centrally located establishment has a stylish ambience and very good service.

Open Daily

Pithnou Street +855 (0) 12 566 610

THE HASHI

Specialises in sushi and sashimi and it definitely has a whiff of the high-end about it. The menu features Japanese-imported Kobe beef, the legendary meat prized for its tenderness.

Open Daily

Wat Bo Rd +855 (0) 63 969 007 www.thehashi.com